

PART 2: Making Room

INTRODUCTION

We love it when someone makes room for us. Whether it is to be part of a team, a place in the company, part of a friend group or even a little space on the sofa, it simply feels good to be included. Being on the other side of someone not making room can be incredibly painful. And the stakes are even higher when someone is asking if there is room for them when it comes to God. Fortunately, Jesus answers this question for us.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What are some of your “remember when” moments?
2. Tell about a time when you experienced someone either making room for you or not making room for you.
3. How can religion keep people out of church?
4. Read John 14:1-2 and 1 John 4:10. How can you be sure there is a room prepared for you or others?
5. Have you ever got what you wanted only to realize you actually wanted something else? Explain.
6. What do you value in life?
7. What sacrifices have you made to pursue what you value?

MOVING FORWARD

Jesus tells us that he has prepared a room for us. We are not too small or insignificant to miss out on what God has for us. We don't have to be afraid of not being good enough to make the cut religion may have set for you in the past. A room is prepared, we simply have to take Jesus at his word. Pray about what sacrifices you can make to make room for someone else.
